

The BULL'S OWN BULL (etin)

Being Lively Comment on a Certain Secret Order to the Police That is Bound to Become as Famous in New York as in Far-Off Patagonia.

From this date until further notice every member of the Traffic Squad must make AT LEAST FIVE ARRESTS A DAY FOR VIOLATION OF THE TRAFFIC LAWS BY MOTORISTS. Study the list of possible violations. Try to make ONE SUMMONS FOR EACH KIND OF VIOLATION. Miz them up—Latest secret orders to New York Police.

HIS Grace, the Duke of Urine, plugged the leaks all right, but failed to stop the skidding.

SIR RICHARD is looking for the traffic cop who dropped the above confidential communication out of his pants pocket up in the Traffic Court the other day and let a young tiger out of the bag.

HADN'T been able to understand the whys of the rush of 200 to 300 damp-hoof automobile cases every day. True, the respondents were almost without exception discharged on the instant, but it was Hard Work and the Magistrates did not like it.

TRYING to make a record of "police activity."

BUT YOU GOTTA ADMIT IT WAS A GOOD IDEA.

SHOWS that somewhere in the Administration they've got a darn smart little fellow with ideas.

PULL DOWN THE BLINDS!

A FEW of the things people can be arrested for in this town are. Dressing at the window with the blinds open. Encouraging a dog fight. Witnessing a dog fight. Carrying a baby on your bicycle. Walking on the grass in the park. Skipping stones on the lagoon. Climbing the park wall. Playing with the monkeys.

THING to do is keep the police busy.

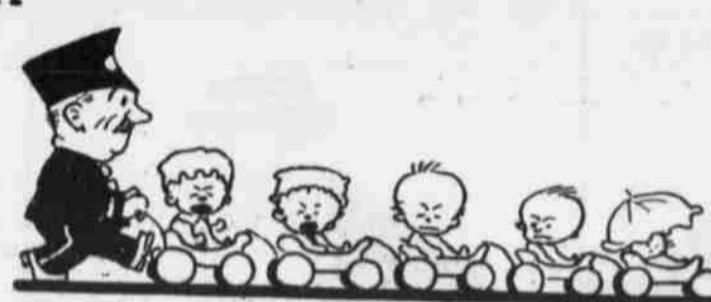

FILL the courts with business—and the newspapers with "police activity."

MAY be only a coincidence, but after laying off of 'em for three years Sunday, they've started pulling little east side tradesmen for keeping open on Sunday.

THE genius who gets up these secret orders needs no advice from us.

BUT

HIS overlooking the baby carriages!

WHY not raid five baby carriages a day and charge the occupants with being likely to grow up and go into crime or matrimony?

MAGISTRATES would discharge them, of course, just as they've been discharging motorists brought in on the five-a-day order.

BUT the police would be "active."

SUGGESTION.

SECRET ORDER 41144—Inspectors will detail five patrolmen in each precinct every day to be "arrested" by five other patrolmen. Any old blue law will do. The kind of cases that are thrown out. "Prisoners" disguised furnished free.

MAYOR LATE AT CITY HALL FIRST TIME DUE TO ILLNESS

Attack of Acute Indigestion Delays Arrival at Work Till 10 O'Clock.

John F. Hylan, who according to Lieut. William Kennel, his personal bodyguard, is the healthiest Mayor New York City ever had, early this morning had his first attack of illness. As a result he did not arrive at City Hall until 10 o'clock. His usual time of arrival is 5:20.

At 2 o'clock this morning the Mayor was awakened by severe pains. His condition became so alarming that a physician was summoned. It was then discovered that the Mayor was a victim of acute indigestion.

"I feel all right again," said His Honor as he ascended the City Hall steps. He admitted he hadn't slept much.

Up to-day Mayor Hylan never mind an hour at City Hall because of ill health.
